REMARKS:

MEMORANDUM FOR: PPS/SEG

SUBJECT: EPS Informal Comments on OPACT QRDYNAMIC

1. The OPACT renewal covers QRDYNAMIC activity in exhaustive detail and shows commendable restraint in what QRDYNAMIC hopes to accomplish. Nevertheless, the renewal request is still weak in the same basic areas:

a. There is no accurate measure of how much of the QRDYNAMIC product is getting into the target areas.

b. There are very minimal indications of target audience reactions, mostly, occasional traveller reports.

c. There are no indications that the OPACT has had any impact on Soviet policy or the Soviet political system.

2. EPS will concur in the renewal of QRDYNAMIC and will ask that efforts to collect justification data continue, increase, and improve.

3. EPS/COMPT made comments on the margins of the draft which are self-explanatory.
